HOLDER REVSHARE

In order to offer a transparent insight into the potential earnings for Super Pepe Race token holders, we've prepared a case study. This study features a table outlining projected platform revenues and the associated passive income for a holder owning 1% of the total supply. These estimates are based on our platform reaching its minimum revenue target from the betting system, showcasing both monthly and yearly potential earnings.

Betting Volume (Monthly)	Platform Revenue (5% Fee)	Revenue of Distribution (90% Fee)	Annual Revenue for Distribution	Monthly income for 1% Holder	Annual income for 1% Holder
$1,000,000	$50,000	$45,000	$480,000	$450	$5,400
$3,000,000	$150,000	$135,000	$1,440,000	$1,350	$16,200
$5,000,000	$250,000	$225,000	$2,400,000	$2,250	$27,000
$10,000,000	$500,000	$450,000	$4,800,000	$4,500	$54,000
$25,000,000	$1,250,000	$1,125,000	$12,000,000	$11,250	$135,000
$50,000,000	$2,500,000	$2,250,000	$24,000,000	$22,500	$270,000
$100,000,000	$5,000,000	$4,500,000	$48,000,000	$45,500	$540,000

As the betting volume increases, the platform's revenue and the passive income for a 1% holder also increase proportionally. With a monthly betting volume of $25,000,000, the platform's revenue amounts to $1,250,000. Applying the 90% distribution rate, a substantial $1,125,000 is available for distribution among token holders each month, summing up to an annual total of $13,500,000. In this scenario, a 1% holder could anticipate a passive income of $11,250 per month and an impressive $135,000 annually.
